

Ideal Candidate Profile & Job Description: Church Engagement Specialist

The South Texas Alliance for Orphans Overview

The Alliance grew organically from 2011-2016 through the leadership of the founder and current Executive Director Jennifer Smith, key church leaders and through replicating the church ministry model pioneered at Grace Point Church. The summer of 2016 brought seed money from First Presbyterian, a DBA opportunity with San Antonio Marriage Initiative and the formation of the advisory committee. In the first year, the Alliance grew from 10-30 churches, hired two part time contract employees and began building the infrastructure to steward the immediate growth and goal of 100 churches in five years.

The Alliance exists to serve and equip churches in fulfilling the Biblical call to care for children and families impacted by the foster care system. We do this by strategically collaborating with area organizations, equipping developing lay ministry leaders, advocating in the community, facilitating the Church and Community Engagement events, training and programs.

Community Need: Insufficient foster and adoptive homes, prevention and support services compounded by fragmented community efforts

Our Mission (Why we Exist): To serve and equip churches in fulfilling the Biblical call to care for children and families impacted by the foster care system.

Our Vision (What we want to achieve): Every child is part of a safe and thriving family.

Our Core Values (The way we will accomplish our mission): Our core values drive how we accomplish our mission.

Collaboration - We work with and amplify the mission of great organizations serving along the foster/adopt/kinship continuum to create a cohesive community solution.

Sustainability - Our work will have a multiplier effect and out live our direct involvement.

Grit - Passion and perseverance in ceaselessly working toward excellence

Compassion - We strive to see and respond to people as Jesus does

Stewardship - We use the resources entrusted to us to achieve our mission with efficiency, effectiveness and transparency

Results - We focus on outcomes in the community not activity in the community

The Position

The Alliance is hiring a Church Engagement Specialist, who is responsible for stewarding the mission and goals of the Alliance while living out our core values. The Church Engagement Specialist will be responsible for stewarding churches we support in foster/adopt/kinship ministry with timely response to phone calls, emails, and other requests; detailed record keeping (financial and otherwise); meeting minimum of quarterly with assigned ministry leaders, ministry calendar planning, assisting with church and Alliance events; communication with ministry leaders, collaborating organizations, staff, and church leadership.

Key Characteristics of Ideal Candidate

CALLED - Personal passion for our mission is essential. Willingness to use your gifts, talents and experience with a sense of personal purpose in doing this work.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP - Willingness to jump in and complete any task.

FLEXIBLE - Ability to adapt the model to the church demographics, collective potential and unique burden in an effective way. Ability to work with what is available and encourage leaders when expectations go unmet or change.

RESOURCEFUL AND CREATIVE - We are a pioneering organization and community solution and thus we will be growing and learning continually. Team members will be part of crafting creative solutions to this very complex and fluid issue and must often think outside the box to advance the mission.

TRUSTWORTHY - We work in a very high trust manner. Team members must work from a deep personal conviction and integrity to do what is right when no one is looking. You are the face of the Alliance to the church and must live in a manner that reflects the organization well and stewards the resources you are entrusted with to complete the mission.

TEAM CHEMISTRY - We work, play hard and value a sense of humor. Our industry is fraught with heartbreaking stories and situations, your ability to maintain hope, celebrate wins and laugh often is critical to longevity and ability to persevere.

COMMUNICATION - We are all working on various projects, various tasks within each project and must communicate clearly needs, expectations, concerns and any offenses. Our team holds high value on honest yet compassionate communication that seeks to bridge gaps, promote personal growth, deepen relationships and advance the mission.

Expectations of the Church Engagement Specialist

Qualification - Ideally, a candidate will have personal experience in the foster, adopt or kinship realm. They ideally will have led a foster/adopt ministry in their church or served in a leadership role in a church. Candidates will have a history of leading others well and advancing a mission that impacts children and families. The Church Engagement Specialist must excel at building and stewarding relationships, casting vision, intentional in stewarding church engagement, engaging public speaker, proficient in record and data keeping and creative in finding solutions that fit each church's unique DNA. They must be proficient in verbal, written and in person communication. Fluency in verbal and written Spanish language is preferred. The position will be assigned to specific churches with goals and KPI's.

Work Schedule - Flexible work schedule that includes remote work opportunities, allowing you to balance your professional and personal commitments. While most work can be done remotely, weekly in-office meetings are required.

Travel - All local for assigned churches with occasional opportunities for training both within and outside Texas.

Education - A bachelor's degree is preferred. Proficiency in Google drive tools. Experience managing people and teams is required.

Compensation - TBD, mileage reimbursement, no benefits
